How To Register for a College Now Course

1. Visit COCC's College Now website and click on the high school you attend.

College Now

College Now courses are COCC courses taught at your high school, during school hours, and by COCC approved high school instructors. Courses can range from core classes like math, writing and history to technical courses, including automotive technology, graphic design or culinary arts.

College Now courses cost $25 per credit, and only students scheduled into dual credit approved courses at their high school are eligible to register.

10. College Now courses cost $25 per credit. This means a typical 4-credit course like WR 121Z or MTH 111Z is only $100. If you are unable to pay for a College Now course due to a financial barrier, please connect with your counselor before registering to see if there are any scholarships available through your high school. Selecting the “I understand and agree” box to the student financial responsibility section means you understand and agree that you are responsible for the course fees for College Now courses. Payment is due by the registration deadline which can be found on our website and is also communicated to you by your high school teacher.

You are registering for these courses:

WR 121Z, MTH 111Z (4 credits), SOCC

College Now Course Fees are $25 Per Credit

For example: WR 121 (4 credits) = $100

Can't pay the $25 per credit? Please speak with your high school counselor. There may be scholarships or funding at your high school to cover these costs.

Student Financial Responsibility

I understand and agree that I am financially responsible for course fees ($25/credit) related to College Now. Failure to make payment will result in future registration holds. Unpaid account balances are eventually sent to collections. Payment is due after your registration has been processed.

I understand and agree

11. The last section of the registration form is the release of information. By registering for a College Now course, you are agreeing to allow COCC to share information with your high school and school district related to the College Now courses and program. However, per federal privacy laws at the college level, COCC cannot release information to anyone outside those school officials without a formal release of information. This includes your parent and/or guardian. If you think your parent or guardian may need to speak to COCC for information pertaining to your courses or payment, please enter their name, relationship and email address in the release of information section.

Release of Information

I authorize COCC to release information related to College Now courses and programs to representatives of my high school, school district, and parents/guardians listed below. The information released will be used only for the purposes of facilitating the College Now program. I understand that revocation of this permission is my responsibility.

I understand and agree

Can COCC release information to your parents/guardians? (optional)

Release of information allows COCC talk to your parent/guardian(s) about your bill, classes, records, and/or account.

Enter parent/guardian name(s) and relationships below. Example: Joe Smith (father).

12. Enter a parent guardian email address so we can email them how to pay for the College Now course fee and information on the program. Signing your name and clicking the final arrow button ensures you submitted your College Now registration form.

Parent/Guardian Email Address

We will email your parent/guardian information on how to pay and general information about College Now.

I hereby permit Central Oregon Community College to release any of the following information from my educational records: Academic performance/progress, attendance, class schedule for current term, cumulative credit hours, financial aid information, grades/academic standing, on-campus housing related information (including conduct issues), registration activity, payment information/history, student conduct information, veteran's information, transcript pick-up (not valid for ordering transcripts). The information may be released by phone, in-person or in writing to the following individuals (please provide full names) once they have confirmed my COCC identification number and date of birth.

I understand that the information provided in this form is considered private information under the federal FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act) guidelines. By completing, signing, and submitting this form, I acknowledge: I am the only person authorized to sign, complete, and submit this form per federal privacy laws. This information will be released to the party(ies) indicated and this release has no expiration date. I may revoke this release by providing a written request to Enrollment Services. This release does NOT authorize others to make any changes to my COCC account/record, including to add/drop courses or request a transcript on my behalf. This release is not applicable for the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) department needs or requirements - students working with the SSD office need to contact that office directly for a separate release.

13. Once your registration form has been processed, you will receive an email from COCC with information on how to pay for your course. You will receive a second email from COCC on how to activate your account. Activating your COCC account is important not only so you can pay for your courses, but also to view final grades, print unofficial transcripts and request official transcripts.

Thank you for submitting your COCC College Now registration form! You will receive an email from COCC on how to activate your COCC Bobcat Web Account and pay for your class(es) after your registration form has been processed. Please allow 1-2 business days.

Please be sure to close your browser to protect your student information. If you have any questions, please contact the College Now office, collegenow@cocc.edu or (541) 504-2930.
